

CODE OF CONDUCT

PARENTS, CAREGIVERS, VOLUNTEERS AND VISITORS

St Andrew's College

St Andrew's College is committed to providing a safe and healthy environment for students, staff, and visitors.

Our Code of Conduct serves as a reminder to all parents, caregivers, volunteers, and College visitors that their conduct must support everyone's emotional and physical well-being, and not harm it in any way. The College Board has set this Code of Conduct as a condition of entry.

The Code of Conduct applies:

- to all conduct, speech, and action, and includes emails, texts, phone calls, social media, or other communication;
- while on College grounds or at another venue where students and/or staff are assembled for College purposes (such as a camp or sports match).

STANDARDS OF CONDUCT

St Andrew's College expects parents, caregivers, volunteers, and visitors to:

- treat everyone with respect;
- work together in partnership with staff for the benefit of students;
- respect and adhere to our College values;
- set a good example for students at all times;
- follow College procedures to handle any complaints;
- adhere to College policies and procedures (such as those listed below), and any legal requirements.

Examples of unsuitable conduct include:

- threats, bullying, harassment;
- profanity/offensive language;
- insulting, abusing, or intimidating behaviour;
- racism or discrimination (e.g. based on ethnicity, religion etc.);
- physical aggression;
- deception/fraud;
- damaging College property;
- smoking/vaping or possessing or using alcohol/drugs/other harmful substances on College premises or at another venue where students and/or staff are assembled for College purposes (except possession or use of alcohol strictly in accordance with St Andrew's College policy);
- placing unreasonable and excessive expectations on staff time or resources;
- pursuing a complaint or campaign, or making defamatory, offensive, or derogatory comments, regarding the College, its Board, or any staff or students on social media or other public forums;
- wearing gang insignia on the College grounds. (This is not allowed under the Prohibition of Gang Insignia legislation, and anyone wearing it will be asked to leave).

DEALING WITH BREACHES OF THE CODE OF CONDUCT

How St Andrew's College deals with breaches of our Code of Conduct depends on the nature of the incident and its seriousness, and the process any witness or victim of the behaviour feels most comfortable with. Examples include:

- documenting each instance of behaviour, including the date, time, place, who was present, what was said (verbatim if possible), how any witness or victim felt and/or responded;
- holding a meeting with the relevant person, the Rector, and/or Board Chair (or their delegate) or appropriate staff member to discuss the problem and possible resolution;
- issuing a warning letter that outlines the problem and required resolution, and reminds them of the possible outcomes of repeated conduct;
- arranging a meeting, which may include restorative practices, as an alternative or in addition to the processes above.

OUTCOMES OF BREACHING THE CODE OF CONDUCT

If a parent, caregiver, volunteer, or visitor acts or speaks in a way that contravenes the Code of Conduct, possible outcomes may include:

- the Rector or their delegate Executive member, through the Board, may ask a person to leave the College premises by revoking their permission to be on the College grounds, then asking them to leave under section 3 of the Trespass Act 1980;
- unacceptable behaviour of a criminal nature may result in the police being informed. For example, under section 241 of the Education and Training Act 2020, it is a criminal offence to insult, abuse, or intimidate a staff member within the presence or hearing of any student while on College premises or in any other place where students are assembled for College purposes. Other instances of criminal offending may occur where drugs are involved, an assault has occurred, or a person persists after being trespassed off College grounds;
- in the case of behaviour amounting to harassment, a restraining order may be sought;
- in some instances, it may be appropriate to refer behaviour to a third party for resolution. For example, a Facebook comment that contravenes this policy may result in a report to Facebook. If unacceptable behaviour occurs at a sports event or sports venue, then it may be appropriate to involve the governing body of that sport, event, or venue.
